—Byrne & Hammer Co's. line, of Omaha, was distinctly shown up in fine style, by a young, rising salesman, Mr. Edward Yocum, who also proved to be a convention booster during the week.—Yankton, South Dakota, Press and Dakotan. Ed is a Holt county boy and lived in the Big Lake neighborhood, being a nephew of John Iden. He has been in the employ of Byrne & Hammer for three years, and we are glad to hear of his success.

—C. E. Dankers, who went to the Ensworth Hospital in St. Joseph on the 27th ult., for an operation for appendicitis, is now doing nicely. The operation was made last Saturday evening by Doctors Forgrave, Heddens and Redmon. It was a most difficult one and the physicians say that if it had been put off two days longer there, no doubt, would have been little chance for Charlie's recovery. He will not be able to leave the hospital for a week yet, but his legion of friends will be glad to know that he will soon be back—Corning Mirror.

—Block Brothers, of St. Joseph, Mo., are having the greatest Clothing Sale in their history. They call the attention of our readers to their ad in this week's issue of our paper. This firm has built up its great business by doing just as it advertises. Reduction Sales mean with them just what they say. The values that they are offering in this sale in suits and overcoats for men and boys are worth buying as a future investment and there is no doubt but what many from this section will take advantage of this opportunity and go to St. Joseph.
